OFFICE MEMORANDUM

The 23rd August 2018

No. 27311—FIN-TRY-ORB-0001/2014-F.—There have been several provisions in the Odisha Treasury Code safeguarding the interest of the persons affected with leprosy, which was considered hitherto as contagious disease. Leprosy is no longer considered as incurable. In the changed scenario, there is no need for continuing with such provisions treating them separately. However, there is a need to protect the interest of the persons affected with the extreme physical incapacity. Accordingly, provisions in the Odisha Treasury Code, Volume I would stand substituted in the following manner with immediate effect :—

- I. The Note Below Subsidiary Rule 277 (ii) would stand substituted as follows:—Photograph should be affixed to Pension Payment Orders of all pensioners whose pensions are transferred for payment from another State to this State.
- II. Subsidiary Rule 277 (iii) would stand substituted as follows: — The cost of Photograph should be borne by the pensioner himself.
- III. Subsidiary Rule 304 would be substituted as follows:—Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules in cases where the pensioners are not able to appear before the Disbursing Officer due to his extreme incapacity shall be paid without being called upon to produce a Pension Payment Order or a bill. He shall merely appear before the Disbursing Officer who shall order one of the staff to fill up (in lieu of the pensioner doing it himself) a pension bill form on which payment shall at once be made and the fact recorded in the register which shall be initialled by the Disbursing Officer as having been paid in his presence.

Where physical appearance of such pensioner is not possible, he may arrange to send a life certificate under S.R. 291. In that case the Treasury / Sub-Treasury Officer will draw the money and send it by postal money-order in the manner laid down under Subsidiary Rule 310.

NOTE : In the case of Treasuries where payments are made through the Bank, the Treasury Officer shall draw the money required from the Bank and shall have the payment made in his presence and shall record a certificate of disbursement in the voucher as stated above or make an order to the Bank for payment into the Bank Account of the pensioner.

In cases where the pensioner is not able to appear before the Disbursing Officer due to his extreme physical incapacity he may, on his specific request be identified by the Disbursing Officer at the place of the pensioner in the month of November each year.

- IV. Note to Subsidiary Rule 625(C) (ii) of Odisha Treasury Code Volume-I would be substituted as follows:
Photograph should be affixed to compensation payment orders of all intermediaries who are not able to appear before the Disbursing Officer due to his/her extreme incapacity.
- V. Subsidiary Rule 625(C) (iii) of Odisha Treasury Code Volume-I would be substituted as follows:
The cost of photograph should be borne by intermediary himself. The photographs should in all cases be renewed in every five years.
- VI. Subsidiary Rule 645 of Odisha Treasury Code Volume-I would be substituted as follows:
Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules in cases where the intermediary is not able to appear before the Disbursing Officer due to his extreme incapacity shall be paid without being called upon to produce the Compensation Payment Order or a bill. He shall merely appear before the Disbursing Officer who shall order one of the staff to fill up (in lieu of intermediary doing it himself) a bill form in OTC -74 on which payment shall at once be made and the fact recorded in the register which shall be initialled by the Disbursing Officer as having been paid in his presence. In such cases, a duly countersigned certificate of payment should also be recorded on the bills.

NOTE (i) In the case of Treasuries where payments are made through the Bank, the Treasury Officer shall draw the, money required from the Bank and shall have the payment made in his presence and shall record a certificate of disbursement in the voucher as stated above or make an order to the Bank for payment into the Bank Account of the intermediary.

NOTE (ii) In case the intermediary is not able to move or to appear before the Disbursing Officer due to extreme incapacity for receiving payment of compensation, such payment may be made at his residence through the Tahasildar. After payment the Tahasildar should record a certificate on the body of the bill that the amount of the bill has been paid by him personally to the intermediary.

VII. Note to Para-9 of Annexure-A would be substituted as follows: Note: Photograph should be affixed to compensation payment order of all intermediaries.

VIII. Subsidiary Rule 669 (B) would be substituted as follows: - In cases where the Subscriber is not able to apply for final withdrawal of General Provident Fund, due to his extreme physical incapacity, the responsibility for such application will be on the concerned Head of Office/ Head of Department / Department of Government for Non-Gazetted and Gazetted Officers, as the case may be. The application for final withdrawal of General Provident Fund of such subscribers shall be made in Form O.T.C. 80-D.
